VISA INSTRUCTIONS FOR K-3 NONIMMIGRANT VISA APPLICANTS

This office has received a petition entitling you to "K-3" nonimmigrant visa classification as an alien proceeding to the United States. To prepare for your interview appointment with a consular officer, please read and follow carefully the instructions below.

FIRST: Once you have acquired all the required documents listed below, please communicate with this office by phone or mail. This is to enable us schedule you an interview appointment.

SECOND: Fill out, in duplicate, and sign, the Electronic Visa Application Form DS-156 (The EVAF can be accessed at http://evisaforms.state.gov).

If your children will apply with you, one copy of the EVAF DS-156 for each child must be completed in detail and signed. Please include each child's photograph. You also need receipts for the non-refundable application fee of $230 (US Dollars) or equivalent in Kenya Shillings. Please visit the following website for details on payment http://usvisa-info.com/en-KE/selfservice/us_fee_payment_options.

beyond the issuance date of the visa. Children may be included in a parent's passport, but if over the age of 16, must have their photograph attached to the passport or their own passport. BIRTH CERTIFICATE: One certified copy of the birth certificate of each person named in the application is required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the beyossible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notaria affidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the aphas resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograp
 PASSPORT: A passport must be valid for travel to the United States and must have at least six months validit beyond the issuance date of the visa. Children may be included in a parent's passport, but if over the age of 16, must have their photograph attached to the passport or their own passport. BIRTH CERTIFICATE: One certified copy of the birth certificate of each person named in the application is required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the berossible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notarizaffidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applica at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and	TH	IIRD : Obtain the following documents on this checklist which pertain to you. Do NO send them to this office.
beyond the issuance date of the visa. Children may be included in a parent's passport, but if over the age of 16, must have their photograph attached to the passport or their own passport. BIRTH CERTIFICATE: One certified copy of the birth certificate of each person named in the application is required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the beyossible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notaria affidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the aphas resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograp		PASSPORT: A passport must be valid for travel to the United States and must have at least six months validity must have their photograph attached to the passport or their own passport. BIRTH CERTIFICATE: One certified copy of the birth certificate of each person named in the application is required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the berossible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notariz affidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applica authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If y		* *
 □ BIRTH CERTIFICATE: One certified copy of the birth certificate of each person named in the application is required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. □ UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the bery possible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notarizal affidavit from your parents. □ POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the aphas resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the particular country. □ POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resident Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. □ COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. □ MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. □ PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. □ MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the ber possible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notariz affidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applica authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the aphas resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certific visa at this time. The certificate must state the date and place of birth and names of both parents. UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the best possible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notarizaffidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applica authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applicant has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has seen arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inches size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each sprior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to bece public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Opt		required. Birth records must be presented for all unmarried children under age 21, even if they are not applying for a possible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notarizatifidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the aphas resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resident Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that material previously in the previously is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to the material proper in the United States. The enclosed information with affidavit from your parents. POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applicant has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to be public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that may presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affida		UNOBTAINABLE BIRTH CERTIFICATES: If an official birth certificate is not obtainable, present the best
 POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applicant has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pathorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that may presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be usu		possible secondary evidence, such as a baptismal certificate, hospital certificate, school records and/or a notarized police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the ap has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the pauthorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that ma presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used the material previous of the physicians listed on the attention sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required		affidavit from your parents.
has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from a countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that material previous to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used the material previous of the examination with one of the physicians listed on the attention sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required		POLICE CERTIFICATES: Each applicant aged 16 years or over is required to submit a police certificate from the countries where the applicant has resided at least one year. A police certificate must also be obtained from the authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted.		police authorities of each locality of the country of the applicant's nationality or current residence where the applicant authorities of any place where the applicant has been arrested for any reason, regardless of the length of resider Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. Arrange for a medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the atteinformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required		has resided for at least six months since attaining the age of sixteen. Police certificates are also required from all other
Police certificates from certain countries are considered unobtainable. The consular office will advise you about particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet this requirement of law. Arrange for a medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the attention of the physicians listed on the attention of the physicians listed on the attention of the examination sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required		 particular country. COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Either or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used the material material examination. A Medical examination is also required.
COURT AND PRISON RECORDS: Persons convicted of a crime must obtain a certified copy of each court and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that material presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the attainformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required and any prison record, regardless that they may have benefited from amnesty or pardon. MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required	_	•
 ■ MILITARY RECORDS: A certified copy of any military record is required. ■ PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. ■ MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. ■ EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that material presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used the material material material examination. A medical examination is also required.
 PHOTOGRAPHS: Two (2) photographs are required. The photographs must be a recent likeness, 2 by 2 inch size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to becopublic charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used the material of the material of the cost of the examination with one of the physicians listed on the attainformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required size, un-mounted, with no head covering, and showing a full, front-face view against a light background. Eithe or black and white photographs are acceptable . The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used to meet the physicians listed on the attainformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required or black and white photographs are acceptable. The applicant must sign (full name) the reverse side of each photograph. MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required
 MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to becompublic charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required
 MARRIAGE CERTIFICATES: If you were married previously, obtain one certified copy of your marriage certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to becompublic charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required certificate(s), and one certified copy of the divorce decree or death certificate to prove the dissolution of each s prior marriage. EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required
 ■ EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to becompublic charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that mat presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required 	Ш
■ EVIDENCE OF SUPPORT: Evidence that will show that you and your children, if any, are not likely to become public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that material presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required public charges in the United States. The enclosed information sheet, Optional Form 167, lists evidence that ma presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be used MEDICAL EXAMINATION: Arrange for a medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the attainformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required presented to meet this requirement of law. If an affidavit of support is to be submitted, Form I-134 should be use MEDICAL EXAMINATION: Arrange for a medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the attainformation sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ■ MEDICAL EXAMINATION: Arrange for a medical examination with one of the physicians listed on the attribution sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required information sheet. You are responsible for the cost of the examination. A Medical examination is also required	П
*
		each child who will accompany you.